"If today, Turkey is a top-ranked country in the world when it comes to development assistance, TİKA's leading role has a great share in this.

I believe that we showcased a Turkish Development Assistance Model with TİKA's efforts."

Recep Tayyip Erdoğan
President of Turkey

In 2002, we had 12 offices.

Today,
with 61 Offices across 59 Countries,

we do our utmost to make the world a better place.

By implementing development projects on economic, social, and cultural issues in an extensive geography spanning from Central Asia to the Balkans, from Africa to Latin America and South Asia, we share Turkey's knowledge and experience with our friends.

We carry out highly diverse projects and activities (on education, healthcare, sheltering, mother-child health, agriculture and livestock, transportation, production, employment, water-sanitation, etc.) that cover all aspects of life starting with a person's birth and extending beyond that.

We continue to support friendly countries in achieving the institutional and human capital that would allow them to effectively use their own resources and to develop collaborations based on long-term and fair partnerships.

Furthermore, we emphasize domestic production in the projects we implement and thus, we indirectly contribute to the exports of our country by encouraging the Turkish industry.

Tens of Thousands of Projects in 170 Countries

As TİKA, we create and carry out projects in many fields; namely education, health, agriculture and animal husbandry, economic development, infrastructure, renovation, cultural cooperation and vocational education.
